Supporting Documentation

Utah law requires the Division of Motor Vehicle to collect a $200 administrative fee prior to releasing any vehicle that was impounded pursuant to 41-6-102.5 of the Utah Code. The Tax Commission will refund the fee only under the following circumstances:

1. Duplicate payment (provide a copy of your payment receipt).
2. The vehicle owner filed a bona fide stolen vehicle report with a police agency and the suspect was arrested for DUI.
3. The vehicle owner can demonstrate that (a) the operator or the person against the operator or the person who was in actual physical control at the time of the were never prosecuted. You must attach a copy of the court order or court docketing statement that disposes of the case. You may supplement the required documents with copies of the police report, chemical tests or any other documents that tend to support your request for refund.

Complete this form and mail it along with all supporting documentation to:

Utah State Tax Commission
Appeals Unit
210 North 1950 West
Salt Lake City, Utah 84134

Upon receipt of your request and support documentation, the Tax Commission will rule on your request and issue a written decision.
Please note: The Tax Commission has no authority to refund towing and storage fees associated with the impound.
